At 2:00 this morning, Woodstock Police Officers responded to a burglary in progress call at the Alta Ridgewalk Apartment Complex Clubhouse. After pursuing the suspect on foot, officers apprehended Deandre Scott, 17, of Acworth as he hid on the back porch of a nearby residence.

Upon arrival to the burglary in progress call, officers were advised that a resident of the apartments observed Scott enter into the clubhouse through the gym door after jumping the fence surrounding the pool. Officers set up a perimeter around the clubhouse and then observed Scott jump back over the fence and flee into the woods. K-9 officers tracked Scott for a mile into the woods. After an hour, the track led officers to the back porch a residence where Scott was hiding.

Deandre Scott was arrested and charged with: criminal trespass, criminal attempt to commit burglary, and possession of tools for the commission of a crime.

He is currently in the Cherokee County Adult Detention Center. His bond is $18, 255.00.

Deandre Scott also had a warrant for his arrest through Cherokee County Sheriff's Office for misdemeanor obstruction of a law enforcement officer.
